

BRIEF LOCALS.

The March term of the district court will open on Monday, March 14, at 9:30 a. m.

Company I, N. G. A., will give a ball in Babbitt's opera house on the 17th instant—St. Patrick's day.

J. L. Davis was in town yesterday on his way to Mexico to buy cattle for Babbitt Bros. of this place.

M. J. Riordan is building an addition to his residence in Milton of the same size as the original building.

The annual election for one school trustee will be held on Saturday, March 26. Polls will be open from 9 a. m. till 2 p. m.

On No. 1 yesterday were thirty-five passengers bound for Klondike. Twenty-four of the thirty-five were from the Indian territory.

The crosswalk on the east side of Lereux street and Aspen avenue, says Supervisor of Streets Mayflower, will be put in next week.

A. T. Cornish of this place has associated himself with a number of local capitalists of Winslow and they will put in an artificial ice plant at that place.

L. D. Boucher returned Monday from Bill Williams fork, where he has taken up a ranch, as he believes that section is the coming agricultural one. He left for his new home in Yuma county yesterday.

J. H. Morse is a candidate for the office of supervisor of streets. Mr. Morse is one of our old reliable citizens and if elected to that office will attend to its duties without fear or favor. He asks his friends to remember him at the polls.

Babbitt Bros. are remodeling the old frame building on Birch street, west of the court house, and will make it a story-and-a-half modern cottage.

The railroad company is now hauling water from this place and Bellemont to Winslow. The pipe line from Creek to Winslow is not in working order.

Dr. W. S. Robinson will move to the Methodist parsonage about the middle of March and will have his office and residence there until the completion of his new residence.

J. W. Weatherford has commenced in earnest the work on his new two-story building. Men with teams and scrapers are at work removing the dirt from the basement.

The room containing the sidebar at the new bank hotel has been repapered and painted and presents a handsome appearance, which is due to the good taste of Frank H. Coon.

W. W. Stout was in from his ranch northwest of Bellemont this week. He is preparing to put 125 acres in grain this spring, and is one of our ranchers who makes ranching pay.

The subject of the discourse tomorrow (Sunday) morning in the Methodist church will be "The I Am." Evening. "The Hidden Power." Seats Free. All invited. C. P. Wilson, pastor.

Another Richmond has entered the race for town marshal. Thomas Devine announces his candidacy and goes into the race with the intention of winning. He is in every way worthy of the place and if elected would make a capable and efficient officer.

The building of the Santa Fe and Grand Canyon railroad was commenced at Williams this week, and it is hoped that the project may be finished. But as so many roads have been started in the direction of the Grand Canyon and abandoned after considerable work was